

FADS HUB • COMMUNITY OPEN DAY

Tuesday 8th July • 3.30pm-8pm

FADS 2-3 Archway Mall

You are invited to the official opening of the FADS Hub on Tuesday 8th July. This marks the start of our work to bring Hill House and Archway Mall back to life and we would be delighted if you could join us.

The FADS Hub includes a new cafe, community space and will host our ongoing consultation activity.

The cafe will provide a base for coffee equipment designers La Marzocco to run a barista training programme for local people.

The open day starts at 3.30 pm and will run until 8.00 pm with a range of activities taking place throughout the day including:

- Children and adults are invited to work with artist Pete Fowler to help complete the murals on the internal walls of the Hub. More information on Pete is available via monsterism.net.
- More information will be available on the barista training scheme and some of our trainees will be in attendance.
- Street food specialists ATE St will be providing slider burgers from their classic Citroen H-van on the square during the early evening.

The next stage of our redevelopment plans including our proposals to re-clad Hill House will be on show for you to view and provide your feedback.

Plans for the proposed re-cladding of Hill House will continue to be on display until 22nd July for you to drop in and provide your views ahead of the submission of the initial planning application to Islington Borough Council over the summer. We will also showcase options for the wider redevelopment of the site at the FADS Hub over the coming months.

What happens at the FADS Hub in the future is up to you so please do let us know if you would like to book the space for community events or activities.
